

Columbia History Department
Senior Thesis Fellowship for Research in European Archives
Application
(due March 28th to cc3472@columbia.edu)

Name:

Email:

Year:

School (CC, Barnard, GS):

Major:

Specialization within major:

Faculty member who can serve as a reference (no letter of recommendation is required):

Previous European travel:

Relevant courses taken, and any relevant research papers written:

Summer research plan (travel dates and archives you plan to visit):

Prospectus Guidelines

Please attach a short research prospectus (no longer than five pages) to this application. The prospectus should describe the research you plan to undertake if awarded the fellowship. It should identify the research question you intend to address, and explain how this question relates to the relevant secondary literature and why your contribution is significant. It should then outline how you plan to answer the question, identifying any research you have already completed, the European archives you intend to explore, and what you think you might find there. It should provide a timeline for the proposed research and describe any logistical challenges you anticipate. Finally, please also include a short bibliography, summarizing the archives that you plan to access and any especially relevant secondary sources.

If you have questions about the application, please contact Professor Charly Coleman (cc3472@columbia.edu).